SUMMARY.

Those who initiated the conspiracy against the Portuguese dynasty included an Admiral, a General, and 11-12 Ministers.

Concerned in the plot were also 200 University professors, and 27 associations representing commercial, educational, and agricultural interests.

There is ill-feeling in Lisbon against members of the royal family, and many have been ordered to leave within 24 hours.

King Manuel is said to have ample funds, and the Queen Mother is going to Villavieja.

The Republic has been generally accepted throughout Portugal, and the colonies have adhered to the Republican Government.

The church at the Quilombo monastery was wrecked by a bomb, and the statues, altars, and sacred relics destroyed.

The correspondent of the "Times" says that there are no movements in the provinces in favour of the old regime.

The deaths from fighting at Lisbon are estimated at under 300.

The explosion of bombs and guns has begun. Among those driven out have been Cardinal Neto and the Bishop of Beja.

The New Zealand Police Inspectors' Reply to Magistrate Day.

A garbled version of what the Police Inspectors in New Zealand said has been published by the Liquor Party. A cablegram was sent to New Zealand inquiring for the truth; the following is the result:—

"Rev. J. DAWSON,

"Sec. N.Z. ALLIANCE,

"Wellington, Sept. 8th, 1910.

"Have submitted your inquiry concerning reports of Inspectors Ellison, Mitchell, Kiely, being adverse to No-Licence, to Dr. Findlay, Minister for Justice. He has replied:—

Wellington, Oct. 8th, 1910.

Dear Sir,—I am in receipt of your letter of to-day's date. It is untrue that the reports of Inspectors Ellison and Mitchell are adverse to No-Licence.

On the contrary, the substance of their replies are greatly in favour of the advantages of No-Licence over Licence as regards temptations to drink. I may add that, with the exception of Inspector Kiely, all the Inspectors of Police in New Zealand report substantially in favour of No-Licence from the point of view of law and order.

Yours truly, J. G. FINDLAY, Minister of Justice."

[The above is a FINAL AND COMPLETE ANSWER to Mr. Day's assertions.]

CRUSHING REJOINDERS.

Eight Members of Parliament for No-Licence Districts in New Zealand cable in support of No-Licence.

"The Sydney Morning Herald," October 10, 1910, publishes the following:—

"We have received the following cablegram from Wellington:—The success of No-Licence in New Zealand having been called in question, we, the undersigned representatives of No-Licence districts, spontaneously and unhesitatingly assert that No-Licence has resulted in a marked decrease in the consumption of liquor in our districts, and has been generally beneficial to the communities we represent."

(Signed)—

ALEXANDER S. MALCOLM, Member of Parliament for Clutha.
ROBERT A. WRIGHT, Member of Parliament for Wellington South.
JAMES ALLEN, Member of Parliament for Bruce.
G. J. ANDERSON, Member of Parliament for Matarua.
A. W. HOGG, Member of Parliament for Masterton.
J. A. HANAN, Member of Parliament for Invercargill.
J. P. LUKE, Member of Parliament for Wellington Suburbs.

(We have added the Electorates which these men represent in Parliament.)
Also the Hon. GEO. POWLDS, Minister of Education and Member for Grey Lynn, another No-Licence District, when passing through Sydney recently spoke strongly in similar terms.

THE LIQUOR PARTY CANNOT PRODUCE EVIDENCE OF THIS CLASS AGAINST NO-LICENCE.

We are using money given by self-sacrificing people to pay for this advertisement. We cannot keep pace with the huge, wealthy, liquor monopoly. Will you help us by your gifts to do the best possible to combat the policy of misrepresentation!

Sent to Secretary, Alliance, Park and Castlereagh streets, Sydney.

Doyle allowed himself to be hustled from the room. He was not in the least bit perturbed by the demonstration which he had just witnessed. He felt as strongly as ever the necessity of his mission. He was not a man to be deterred by a few words or a few blows. He was a man of iron will and unshakable courage. He was a man who had seen many things in his life, and he was not easily shaken. He was a man who had seen many things in his life, and he was not easily shaken.

"No! No!" he said, "I am not a man to be deterred by a few words or a few blows. I am a man of iron will and unshakable courage. I am a man who has seen many things in his life, and I am not easily shaken. I am a man who has seen many things in his life, and I am not easily shaken."

EDUCATION.

A SCHOOL OF MINES.

There is no school of Mines in New South Wales. Yet for variety and abundance of minerals no State in the Commonwealth surpasses New South Wales. Schools of Mines are established at Ballarat, Adelaide, and Melbourne. The Government of New South Wales has decided to establish a school of Mines at Broken Hill. The school will be a practical working school, and will be a school of Mines. The school will be a practical working school, and will be a school of Mines.

THE SYDNEY MORNING HERALD, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1910.

PORTUGAL QUIET.

REPUBLIC ACCEPTED.

BUSINESS GENERALLY RESUMED.

FIGHT AGAINST CLERICAL DOMINANCE.

EXPULSION OF RELIGIOUS.

LONDON, Oct. 10.

Telegrams from Lisbon indicate that the Republic has been generally accepted throughout Portugal.

The proclamation of the Republic has been formally notified to the Powers. All the Republics of Portugal have adhered to the Republic of Portugal.

Dr. Machado, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, in the course of an interview said: "Portugal with lightning suddenness has reached normal national life."

The Lisbon correspondent of the "Times" telegraphs: "The transition from a Monarchy to a Republic now appears as smooth as the flight of a bird."

There is no trace of reaction or of any other disturbance. Almost the entire population is wearing Republican favours.

The command of the Ministry is every day being obeyed. The citizens are ordered to respect the police, the soldiery, and the priests.

There are no movements in the provinces reported in favour of the old regime.

The banks and offices of Lisbon and Oporto are open.

Colonel Barreto, the Minister for War, has called to the "Daily Mail" that some small outbreaks, provoked by priests, the men being armed with carbines and dynamite, have been suppressed.

The "Echo de Paris" reports that Senhor Braga states that the number of those killed during the fighting does not exceed 50.

THE EXILED ROYALTIES.

LARGE INVESTMENTS ABROAD.

DEPARTURE FOR TEMPORARY HOMES.

LONDON, Oct. 8.

King Manoel, who is in Gibraltar, has ample funds. The royalties and many noble families have large investments abroad.

Much of Queen Amalia's fortune is invested in France.

Oct. 10. King Manoel and the Queen Mother, Queen Amalia, are proceeding from Gibraltar to the Azores.

The Queen Dowager, Maria Pia, and the Infante Alfonso, Duke of Oporto, uncle of the King, will go to Italy.

ANTI-CLERICAL FEELING.

MAIN FACTOR OF REVOLT.

REPUBLICANS GUARD CHURCHES.

CONVENT FIGHTING EXAGGERATED.

Accounts of the fighting against the Convent monastery and convent in Lisbon, asserting that bombs were thrown by the monks in the convent killing two soldiers, were received by way of Madrid. Those accounts are now modified.

Reuter's special correspondent at Lisbon says that it is undoubtedly that shots were fired from the monastery, killing two soldiers, and imagined that a large force of municipal guards was inside the convent.

When the gate was battered in nobody was found. Search was then made for supposed tunnels connecting the convents.

The monks informed the people who were assisting the soldiers. The people wrecked the church, connected with the Convent monastery, the statues, crucifixes, altars, and partitions being demolished, and the sacred relics stolen.

A man put a stone round his neck, stung the wiles of a monk.

Oct. 10. The strike on the railway in Northern Ireland is still in the hands of the strikers. The minimum wage of 5 francs (40 sh.) a day. Some of the malcontents are those paid on a higher scale.

SOUTH AFRICAN UNION.

AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 9. General Botha, the Prime Minister, speaking at Welveredien, in the Transvaal, said the Union Government proposed to initiate a vigorous land policy and the wholesale development of agriculture.

Reuter's correspondent emphasises, as the strongest feeling against the priesthood, the fact that the monks were expelled from the convent, and the monks were expelled from the convent, and the monks were expelled from the convent.

REVOLT IN HONDURAS.

GENERAL SEIZES AN ISLAND.

BRITISH AND AMERICANS EXPELLED.

LONDON, Oct. 10.

Guatemala advices received by the "New York Sun" state that foreigners at Ampan, an island of Honduras, have fled owing to the commandant, General Valdes, ordering all foreigners and British subjects to be imprisoned, and their property confiscated.

The bulk of the American property has been seized.

The British Consul, Mr. R. Motz, fled to San Salvador, amid a shower of bullets from the troops. The commandant wanted to arrest him on a charge of fomenting a revolution.

The Consul has asked for a warship to protect British interests, but the commandant threatens to burn the city immediately a warship is sighted. The United States gunboat Princeton, now at Ampan, Mexico, has been ordered to proceed to Ampan.

The official version received at Washington of the outbreak at Honduras is that when General Davila succeeded General Brilla in the Presidency in February, 1909, General Valdes seized Ampan, and has ruled it ever since in complete disregard of the President, who now declares his intention of dislodging the rebel.

One admiral, six generals, eleven ex-Ministers, 200 university professors, and 57 associations representing educational, agricultural, and commercial interests, initiated the conspiracy for the overthrow of the dynasty.

BRITISH WARSHIP RETURNS.

ARRIVAL AT GIBRALTAR.

The British cruiser Newcastle has returned to Gibraltar from Lisbon, whither she was ordered on the outbreak of the revolt.

NATIONAL PROPERTY.

THE ROYAL YACHT.

The Royal yacht Amalia has been claimed by the Republican Government as national property, and consequently has left Gibraltar for Lisbon.

OUTBREAK AMONG PRISONERS.

Some prisoners in Oporto broke loose and fired on the guards, who returned the fire. Two were killed, and sixteen injured.

THE PRESIDENT'S QUARTERS.

Senhor Braga, President of the Republic, will occupy a portion of one of the palaces.

BRITISH MINISTER'S INSTRUCTIONS.

Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has instructed Sir F. H. Villiers, British Minister at Lisbon, to consider his position at present as strictly unofficial.

HOME RULE.

Mr. T. Healy's opinion.

Mr. Timothy Healy, M.P. (independent), Nationalist, in the course of an interview, commenting on the action of Mr. John Redmond in consenting to wait the introduction of a bill for Home Rule for Ireland until the claims of Wales and Scotland were dealt with was due to pressure from the Government, which, after the collapse of the conference on the powers of the House of Lords, determined not to go to the country hampered with the cry of Home Rule for Ireland in addition to the reform of the House of Lords.

Ireland, Mr. Healy said, had been sold both on the Budget and promises given as the price of its passing.

RAILWAY STRIKE IN FRANCE.

When the pilgrims at Sorol, on the Garonne, were held up by the strike, an elephant raised the waters, an elephant repeatedly swam into the river with ropes attached to it.

MILITARY EMPLOYED.

In Northern France 500 railway men have struck work.

Passenger traffic is not affected. Later, Reuter's correspondent states that the strike is spreading. Soldiers are acting as drivers and stokers.

STEWARTS WINNING COLLEGE CREW.

The Prince of Wales steered the winning crew in the naval college cadet pair race at the regatta at Dartmouth.

TEACHING OF FARMERS.

The Board of Agriculture is asking for £50,000 from the Development Fund for the purpose of promoting scientific research and technical advice for the benefit of farmers.

FRANK WOOTTON SCORES A CENTURY.

The Sydney lad Frank Wootton has ridden 100 winners during the current season.

Last year young Wootton held the list of winners for the day in the grand and big day to retain the premiership this season. His chances did not appear too good when he was suspended for a month in the early part of the current season by the stewards of the English Jockey Club, for during the term of suspension he was riding the American J. Key D. Maher, left the Australian Jockey Club, but he has been returning his profession the latter gradually made up his mind, and recently a cable message announced that he had returned to the English Jockey Club.

CONDITION OF BRITISH CROPS.

The Agricultural Commission of the "Times" estimates the condition of the British crops on October 1st: Wheat, 91.1; barley, 92.6; oats, 93.

NEW F. AND O. STEAMERS.

Two new 12,000-ton liners for the F. and O. Company's Australian service via Cape will be named Bendigo and Ballarat respectively.

BRITISH POLITICS.

END OF THE TRUCE.

EXPECTED FAILURE OF CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Oct. 10.

There is expectation in some quarters that the conference between the Liberal and Conservative leaders on the powers of the House of Lords will fail.

This expectation has arisen from a statement by Mr. R. B. Haldane, Secretary of State for War, that the election may come like a thief in the night, coupled with a letter from the Master of Elibank, the chief Liberal Whip, stating that the Liberal Whip has initiated a series of attacks on Liberal constituencies.

A NOTORIOUS CRIMINAL.

The Austrian police have arrested Maech, a monk, who is charged with murdering his brother and eloping with his widow.

Maech, it appears, committed the robbery in the Church of the Holy Mother, at Czesochowa, Russian Poland, in October last year, when a diamond necklace, valued at £100,000, was stolen.

ANGLO-FRENCH PENNY POSTAGE.

The French Premier, M. Briand, in receiving a deputation of British members of the House of Commons, declared that the penny postage between Great Britain and France was a serious question.

GREAT LIBERAL RALLY.

MR. WADE AT LEICHHARDT.

A MAGNIFICENT RECEPTION.

The Leichestown Town Hall was quite unable to hold more than about one-half the people who were present for the reception of Mr. Wade. The hall was opened at half-past six, and was nearly filled at once by those waiting, and long before 6 o'clock hundreds of people were unable to gain admittance. A large number of the men were obliged to stand outside, and the hall was opened at half-past six, and was nearly filled at once by those waiting, and long before 6 o'clock hundreds of people were unable to gain admittance.

CAPTAIN DICKSON'S CONDITION.

Captain Herbert Dickson, who was injured at Milan in collision between his aeroplane and that of Mr. Thomas, has been seriously operated upon, but he is still delirious.

GERMAN SHIPYARDS DISPUTE.

Settlement reached.

At a conference of the employers and employees of private German shipbuilding yards it was agreed to settle the strike. The men have obtained some material concessions, but have abandoned the demand for an all-round working week of 33 hours.

SOCIALIST PROTESTS.

AGAINST ABUSE-USEING POLICE.

Socialist meetings, aggregating 20,000 people, were held in the city of London, in connection with the action of Mr. John Redmond in consenting to wait the introduction of a bill for Home Rule for Ireland until the claims of Wales and Scotland were dealt with was due to pressure from the Government, which, after the collapse of the conference on the powers of the House of Lords, determined not to go to the country hampered with the cry of Home Rule for Ireland in addition to the reform of the House of Lords.

SAVED BY AN ELEPHANT.

ONE THOUSAND RESCUES.

SECOND EDITION.

LABOUR'S REVENGE.

GREAT ORGANISED ATTACK.

PREMIER HOWLED DOWN.

TWO REMARKABLE MEETINGS.

Last night Mr. Wade ventured right into the lion's den—in Redfern, where dwells Mr. McMahon.

The Premier's visit was responsible for a most remarkable demonstration. Labour was smarting under the sting of the Premier's whip which was vigorously during the past few days, and had planned its revenge. And it got it. Whatever may be thought of the means.

Mr. Wade was engaged for two meetings, one in the Redfern Town Hall, and the other in the Abercrombie-street, and the open. The plan of attack was a triumph of Labour organisation. All Mr. McMahon's supporters had been rounded in from everywhere.

The first of the meetings was held at the Town Hall. But that was only part of the scheme. Probably not more than a thousand were there gathered at the time. Other things were happening while Mr. Wade was addressing a large audience packed in sardine fashion inside the hall.

The Town Hall audience got its first inkling of Mr. Wade's arrival by the sound of protracted music and loud cheers from outside. The first of the meetings was held at the Town Hall.
